Certification

Video conference

- I have completed a verification of the individual Borrower named above by way of a live video conference, sighting the Borrower holding their original Australian Drivers' Licence and, with the Borrower's consent, attach a photo of the Borrower holding up their Drivers' Licence taken by the Borrower in that conference.

The photograph on the Drivers' Licence is a "reasonable likeness" to the individual Borrower.
Nothing in my dealings with the Borrower has raised any suspicions concerning their valid identification.

The Broker must write on the printed copy of the photograph "I certify this is a true copy of the photograph taken by the Borrower of the Borrower with their Drivers' Licence" and sign the copy.

- I have attached the certified copy of the photograph of the Borrower holding up their Australian Drivers' Licence.

In person

- I have completed a face to face verification of the individual Borrower named above by sighting and certifying copies of their original Australian Drivers' Licence provided to me by him/her.

All photographic identification is a "reasonable likeness" to the individual Borrower.
Nothing in my dealings with the Borrower has raised any suspicions concerning their valid identification.

The Broker must write on the printed copy of the Borrower's Drivers' Licence "I certify this is a true copy of the original document" and sign the copy.

The Borrower must sign this form in front of the Broker.

- I have attached the certified copy of the Borrower's Australian Drivers' Licence
